

Call for Proposals

ENTREPRENEURSHIP: Transforming College Operations, Workforce and our Communities NOVEMBER 2-4, 2022

The Community Colleges of Appalachia (CCA) is a voluntary association of public community colleges serving the common interests of member colleges and their communities through programs and services responsive to the unique cultural, geographic, and economic challenges facing the region.

Hocking College is serving as this year's Fall Conference host, planning an engaging program to discuss topics and learn from leaders amongst our organizations on the topic of Transforming College Operations, Workforce and our Communities. Two-year colleges from the greater Appalachian region meet in Nelsonville, Ohio to share their experiences and best practices around the conference themes. Two-year presidents, administrators and faculty are encouraged to submit proposals to further the discussion on the initiatives and impact of colleges in transforming college operations, workforce development and impact on communities and their culture.

Sessions are scheduled for twenty-minute (TED-talk style) or forty-five minute segments. Please indicate your preferred format. The shorter 20-minute format has developed from feedback of conference attendees who like this faster conference pace. Proposal submissions should be completed using the form included, and emailed to cca2022@hocking.edu by September 16, 2022 to be considered.
